

Flipped Classroom Lesson

Furman University Technology Literacy Class | 24 points

	1 Emerging	2 Progressing	3 Meeting/Exceeding
Lesson Plan Content (x2)	Content is not tied to grade level standards Content provides inaccurate information	Content is tied loosely to grade level standards Content is not clear or contains some inaccurate information	Content is tied directly to grade level standards Content provide accurate information
Delivery (x3)	Video is of poor quality or the video content does not match the lesson plan/standards addressed.	Video is of good quality, but the video content does not adequately address the content or prepare students for the activities to be done in class.	Video quality was very good, high quality lesson delivery. The video provided the necessary content to prepare students for the activities in class.
Activities (x3)	Activities developed for class did not match the video content and were not engaging students in hands-on learning and reinforcement.	Activities developed were appropriate based on the video content, but the content was not engaging or hands on	Activities developed complement and reinforce the video. Activities were hands-on and engaging.

24 Total Points